WHAT IS THE WORD IN VIEW?

The Word in View is a visual presentation of Scripture created to help readers slow down, observe the biblical world, and engage more deeply with the people, places, emotions, and events described in the text.

Realistic imagery accompanies the biblical text - not to replace Scripture, but to help readers see what they are reading.

WHY WAS IT CREATED?

Biblical events can become so familiar that we unintentionally experience them only as stories.

But Abraham traveled. Joseph suffered. Moses stood before Pharaoh. Families feared, grieved, worshiped, obeyed, rebelled, hoped, and trusted Yahweh.

These events happened to real people in real places. The purpose of The Word in View is to help restore that sense of reality while keeping Scripture at the center of the experience.

WHO CAN USE IT?

Families Read and discuss Scripture together.
Youth Ministries Give students a visual entry point into biblical history.
Small Groups Read, observe, discuss, and apply Scripture together.
Sunday School & Bible Classes Use imagery to support teaching and discussion.
Christian Schools & Homeschool Families Connect text with geography, culture, people, and historical setting.
Individual Readers Especially helpful for readers who process information visually.

HOW MIGHT A CHURCH USE IT?

- Small-group Bible studies
- Family discipleship
- Youth Bible studies
- Sunday school classes
- Scripture reading programs
- Teaching illustrations
- Church libraries and Christian education
- Outreach and gifts

OUR APPROACH Scripture remains primary.

The imagery supports careful reading rather than replacing or rewriting the text. Visuals are developed with attention to historical setting, geography, material culture, human realism, and continuity. Where Scripture does not specify a detail, the image should be understood as an artistic reconstruction - not a claim that we know precisely what a biblical person or event looked like.
